ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1. The name of the organization shall be “The State Council of Cabrillo Civic Clubs, Incorporated” (hereinafter referred to as Cabrillo Club).

Section 2. The name of the organization, or any part thereof, or derivative there from, as well as the name of any subordinate club, as defined in Article XII, Section 4, may be employed in connection with the official activities of Cabrillo Club. Special permission for the use of such name for other purposes may only be granted only by the State Board of Directors. Any special permission granted for an extended period may be subject to review by the State Board of Directors or State Council.

Section 3. The name of the organization, or any part thereof, or derivative there from, as well as the name of any subordinate club, as defined in Article 12, Section 4, shall not be used, or approved for use by the Board of Directors or the State Council, to advance any individuals or groups political goals, or with the intent to produce a financial gain which does not directly benefit Cabrillo Club.

Section 4. This Organization shall be a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of California.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE

Section 1. Cabrillo Club shall be an organization for Californians of Portuguese decent, their spouses, and individuals interested in Portuguese culture, founded on the basis of honoring the memory of John Rodrigues Cabrillo, promoting the Portuguese culture, improving the surrounding community through civic involvement, and providing financial assistance for Portuguese youth seeking a college education. Cabrillo Club shall exist to meet the needs of close fellowship among its members of like ideals who are interested in the same end.

Section 2. In carrying out the purpose of Cabrillo Club, the organization shall strive to personify and encourage the following ideals:

- A. To foster in the public mind and the hearts of all Californians, the memory of John Rodrigues Cabrillo (Joao Rodrigues Cabrilho) a Portuguese navigator and discoverer of California;
- B. To obtain by appropriate exercises and ceremonies in all municipalities in California, the observance of September 28th of each year as “Cabrillo Day”;
- C. To unite Californians of Portuguese descent into a harmonious body of patriotic and loyal Californians, seeking the ultimate welfare of their State in civic, economic and cultural growth;
- D. To award scholarships to promising students of Portuguese descent;

- E. To perpetuate in California and United States history, the deeds of John Rodrigues Cabrillo and other Portuguese navigators, who contributed to the discovery and exploration of California and the Pacific Coast;
- F. To erect, at appropriate sites in California, monuments, statues, shrines and other appropriate edifices and symbols of recognition and tribute in honor of John Rodrigues Cabrillo and other Portuguese navigators; to seek State and Congressional aid, financial or otherwise, to carry out these objects;
- G. To uphold and maintain the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America and the Constitution and Laws of the State of California; to instill interest in the civic and economic growth and operation of the Federal, State and Municipal Governments; to foster naturalization of resident aliens; and Americanization and Democracy;
- H. Cabrillo Club shall constantly endeavor to make these ideals dynamic in the lives of Cabrillo Club Members.

ARTICLE III: ORGANIZATION

Section 1. The governing documents of Cabrillo Club shall be as ordered: the State Constitution and Resolutions. All Subordinate Club Operating Policies and Resolutions shall conform to these State Cabrillo Club Documents.

Section 2. Cabrillo Club Shall Consist of five (5) components: the State Council, the State Board of Directors, the State Officers, the Cabrillo Council and the Subordinate Clubs. Each component shall have specific areas of responsibility, as described in this Constitution, and the authority necessary to advance the mission of Cabrillo Club.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

- N. Defend and uphold the prestige of the people of Portuguese birth and descent in the United States of America.

Section 5. The State Council shall provide a uniform membership card printed every year and issued to the members of record, as submitted by the Secretary of each of the Subordinate clubs.

ARTICLE VI: The State Board of Directors

Section 1. The State Board of Directors of the State Council shall consist of all State Officers, the last two Past State Presidents, Chairpersons of State Standing Committees and Chairpersons of State Special Committees. All members of the Board shall submit written reports at each Annual Session and State Board of Directors meetings.

Section 2. All other Past State Presidents, as well as Past State Spouses of record, in good standing may serve as ex-officio members with the right to vote. However, their attendance shall not be used in the determination of a quorum.

Section 3. The State Board of Directors shall meet once in the spring and fall, and at times which are deemed necessary by its members.

Section 4. At all meetings of the State Board of Directors, a quorum shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the members of the Board and the minutes shall be signed by the State Secretary and the State President.

Section 5. The State Board of Directors shall be empowered to assign future Subordinate clubs to appropriate Districts and re-assign the Subordinate Clubs to more appropriate Districts.

Section 6. The State Board of Directors powers may be limited by The State Council

ARTICLE VII: The Cabrillo Council

Section 1. The Cabrillo Council shall be comprised of the delegates elected by each Subordinate club.

- A. Each subordinate club may elect one delegate and one alternate for each 15 dues paying members. At no time shall a club have more alternates than delegates.
- B. An additional delegate and alternate may be elected if, at the time of election, the subordinate club has 9 to 14 dues paying members more than the final fully represented delegate.
- C. If, for any reason, a delegate is unable to attend a State Council meeting they shall not be allowed a proxy vote. However, an elected alternate from the same subordinate club may serve as a delegate in their absence.

Section 2. Each Subordinate club shall elect their delegates and alternates to the Cabrillo Council in the following time and manner:

- A. Nominations for delegates and alternates shall be made on the first meeting of September of each year, and consist of only those members who are in good standing.
- B. The election of nominated delegates shall be held in October by secret ballot with the candidates receiving the highest number of votes declared elected to represent the Subordinate club on the Cabrillo Council.
- C. Those individuals nominated but not elected delegates shall be selected as alternates in the order of the number of votes they received.
- D. Any ballot submitted which does not contain a number of votes equal to the number of delegates to be elected, or containing a vote for an individual who has not been nominated, shall be considered void in its entirety and not included in the determination of delegates.

Section 3. Upon the subordinate clubs certification of the election of delegates, and at least 10 days prior to the Annual Session, each subordinate club shall forward a list of the elected delegates and alternates to the State Secretary for certification.

Section 4. Each delegate and alternate must present their credentials, properly signed and attested by the President and Secretary of Subordinate club, certifying they are a delegate or alternate elected in accordance with the preceding provisions,

ARTICLE VIII: Annual and Special Sessions of the State Council

Section 1. The voting members of the Annual Session shall be; The State Board of Directors, Past State Presidents, Past State First Spouses of record, and The Cabrillo Council.

Section 2. The State Secretary shall notify the Subordinate clubs of the time and place of the Annual Session at least 90 days prior to the session, and at least 25 days prior to any Special Session, unless a situation arises which requires more immediate action by the State Council.

Section 3. Any member in good standing may attend any session of the State Council. However, the State Council may deny admission of any person or member of Cabrillo Club to its Annual or Special Sessions with good cause.

Section 4. No one other than a member of the State Council shall be allowed to address the State Council or vote during an annual or special session of the State Council, without the consent of the Council.

Section 5. Prior to the convening of the State Council at an Annual Session, the State Secretary shall present the list of the delegates and alternates, as they were submitted by the Subordinate clubs, to the committee on credentials; Upon recommendation of the committee on credentials, said list shall be added to the list of the State Board of Directors, as well as the list of Past State Presidents, and Past State First Spouses of record, and be deemed the roll call of the session.

Section 6. Thirty members of the State Council, of whom at least five (5) shall be elected officers, shall constitute a quorum at any Annual or Special Session.

Section 7. No session of the State Council may be convened unless a majority of individuals answering the first roll call are delegates elected by the Subordinate clubs and approved by the Committee on Credentials. If a session is found to be in violation of this rule, the following steps shall be taken, in the order listed, until it is met.

- A. Past State Presidents shall be assigned delegates of their Home Club by the State President, so long as they have the consent of the delegates of the club, unless their home club has reached its maximum number of delegates allowed, as defined.
- B. Past State First Spouses shall be assigned delegates of their Home Club by the State President, so long as they have the consent of the delegates of the club, unless their home club has reached its maximum number of delegates allowed, as defined.
- C. Committee chairpersons shall be assigned delegates of their Home Club by the State President, so long as they have the consent of the delegates of the club, unless their home club has reached its maximum number of delegates allowed, as defined.
- D. A random drawing of Past State First Spouses in attendance that have not been made delegates shall occur for restriction of voting rights until elected delegates constitute a majority of voting members of the State Council.

- E. A random drawing of Committee Chairpersons in attendance that have not been made delegates shall occur for restriction of voting rights until elected delegates constitute a majority of voting members of the State Council.

Section 8. The Annual Session shall be held during the last weekend in January at the time and place determined at the previous session.

Section 9. The State Council may decide to hold the Annual Session on a weekend other than the final weekend in January, or delegate to the State Board of Directors the selection of a time and place to convene the Annual Session.

ARTICLE IX: Election of State Officers

Section 1. State Officers, with the exception of District Governors and State Directors, shall be elected by a majority vote of the voting members of the State Council at the Annual Session for a term of one year.

Section 2. Nominations of State Officer for general elections may be made by any Member in good standing. If the Annual Session is held over the course of two or more days, nominations must be received the day prior to the election; if the Annual Session is held in one day, or if there is a position without a nominee, nominations must be made at least two (2) hours prior to the election.

Section 3. Elections of State Officers, with the exception of District Governors and State Directors, shall be conducted at a meeting of the State Council with quorum and during executive session. General and special elections for State Officers shall be conducted according to the following procedure:

- A. The candidate for each State Office shall be given the opportunity to deliver a speech to the Cabrillo Council. The order in which the candidates speak shall be determined by the drawing of lots. Immediately following each candidate's speech, there shall be a period during which the candidate will answer questions posed by the State Council. During each candidate's speech and the following period of questions, no other candidates for the State Office shall be present.
- B. Following the final candidate's speech, a vote shall be conducted by secret ballot, unless the individual is unopposed and granted consent of the Cabrillo Council.
- C. The Election Committee shall collect and tally the votes. No individual counting the votes may be a candidate for State Council. The Election Committee shall provide result of each vote and the counted ballots to the Chair without recess or unnecessary delay. The Chair shall announce the result of each vote.

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS OF THE STATE COUNCIL OF CABRILLO CIVIC CLUBS, INCORPORATED

- D. In the event that no candidate for State Office has obtained a clear majority of the votes cast, a run-off vote shall be instituted. The two (2) candidates for the Office receiving the highest number of votes shall be placed on a new ballot, and a new vote shall be taken. This process shall be repeated until one (1) candidate receives a majority vote.
- E. A candidate for State Office who receives the majority vote in an election shall be considered the officer-elect immediately following the announcement of the vote.

Section 4. At every Annual Session the members in attendance from each district shall elect, as defined in Section 4, a District Governor to serve as a State Officer and represent the district on the State Board of Directors. Each district shall be comprised as follows;

- A. District 1:
 - a. Club No. 1, San Francisco County

- H. District 8:
 - a. Club No. 16, San Diego County

Section 5. Prior to each Annual Session each Subordinate Club shall elect a State Director and an Alternate State Director to serve as a State Officer and represent the Subordinate Club on the State Board of Directors. The Subordinate Club shall report the results of the election to the State Board of Directors.

Section 6. The State Officers and other appointed officers shall be installed on the last day of the Annual Session and shall hold office until their successors are elected, installed and qualified to enter upon the discharge of their duties; if absent, newly-elected State Officer may be installed by proxy.

Section 7. Vacancies of State Officers, except in the case of the office of the State President, Vice Presidents, or State Directors shall be filled by the following procedure:

- A. If the vacancy occurs at least 90 days prior to the Annual Session; the State Board of Directors shall fill the vacancy by temporary appointment from within the eligible Membership of Cabrillo Club. Appointees shall be installed immediately upon accepting the appointment, and shall serve until the vacancy is filled by election at the next Annual Session, and the appointee's successor is duly installed.
- B. If the vacancy occurs less than 90 days prior to the Annual Session the vacancy shall be filled by general election.

Section 8. Vacancies in the office of the State President shall be filled by the First Vice President; vacancies in the Office of First Vice President shall be filled by the Second Vice President; vacancies in the Office of Second Vice President shall be filled by a member of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of the Board. If the resulting vacant position is an appointed position, the President shall appoint a replacement; if the resulting vacant position is an elected office a replacement shall be elected according to the procedure outlined in Article IX, Section 7.
