Presidents Message – Janet McKay

Where to start: The year ended up with a BANG and already this year is starting up at a gallop. In February we have two events that I hope you will come and support. Our annual Valentines Day Dinner is on the 11th of February and the meal is only $10. Gui and I will be cooking Chicken Marsala as the main entree. Also in February we are serving up our Portuguese Breakfast. The kitchen help will be serving linguica and eggs starting at 8:00 am on February 27th.

And, for March, if you have not been to our annual crab dinner you are missing one great meal. Mark March 5th for a wonderful Saturday night, so come and join in the festivities.

I would like to remind you that membership fees are now due for the year. Where else could you go to join in on numerous great events? Crab feed, Valentine Dinner, Sunday morning breakfasts with linguica and Portuguese sweet breads; BBQ's; pot lucks and our annual state convention. Besides our organization is really a feel good group. You feel good when we fund annual scholarships for students; you feel good when we support citizenship and participate in civic events; and you feel good when we contribute to local organizations to fight cancer. And I know you feel good when you are at a Cabrillo event!

I have to report about the hall: The plumbing has been repaired but more needs to be done. The roof leaked and we think it was repaired. Our friend Mr. Balshore got up on the roof during one of our torrential downpours in December and put some gunk up there. Folks, we are going to really have to do some fund-raising for a new roof, paint, refinishing the floor and work on the lounge area.

Twelve members from Club #5 are driving down to Lemoore for the annual State Convention. Lucky Wes Silva is driving with three women! He doesn't have a chance getting a word in edgewise. I am happy to see such a great turnout from our club to celebrate the event. Rosemarie Higgins is finishing her term as the State President and our own Scott Costa is coming in as the State President for 2011. On Sunday, January 30th, during the luncheon, Scott will be installed.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the convention and also seeing you at the next three events at the club in February and March.

Americanization – Ken Costa

Washington's Birthday is a United States federal holiday celebrated on the third Monday of February. It is also commonly known as Presidents Day (or Presidents' Day).

Titled Washington's Birthday, the federal holiday was originally implemented by the federal government in 1880 for government offices in the District of Columbia, and expanded in 1885 to include all federal offices. As the first federal holiday to honor an American citizen, the holiday was celebrated on Washington's actual birthday, February 22. On January 1, 1971 the federal holiday was shifted to the third Monday in February by the Uniform Monday Holiday Act. A draft of the Uniform Holidays Bill of 1968 would have renamed the holiday to Presidents' Day to honor both Washington and Lincoln, but this proposal failed in committee and the bill as voted on and signed into law on June 28, 1968 kept the name Washington's Birthday.

In the late 1980s, with a push from advertisers, the term "Presidents' Day" began its public appearance. The theme has expanded the focus of the holiday to honor another President born in February, Abraham Lincoln, and often other Presidents of the United States. Although Lincoln's birthday, February 12, was never a federal holiday, approximately a dozen state governments have officially renamed their Washington's Birthday observances as "Presidents Day", "Washington and Lincoln Day", or other such designations. However, "Presidents Day" is not always an all-inclusive term. In Massachusetts, while the state officially celebrates "Washington's Birthday," state law also prescribes that the governor issue an annual Presidents Day proclamation honoring the presidents that have come from Massachusetts: John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Calvin Coolidge, and John F. Kennedy (Coolidge, the only one born outside of Massachusetts, spent his entire political career before the vice presidency there. George H. W. Bush, on the other hand, was born in Massachusetts, but has spent most of his life elsewhere.)

Alabama uniquely observes the day as "Washington and Jefferson Day", even though Jefferson's birthday was in April. In New Jersey, Connecticut and Illinois, while Washington's Birthday is a federal holiday, Abraham Lincoln's birthday is still a state holiday, falling on February 12 regardless of the day of the week. In California, Lincoln's Birthday is also a legal state holiday; however, observance is frequently moved to the Monday or Friday occurring closest to February 12.

In Washington's home state of Virginia the holiday is legally known as "George Washington Day."

PAO DOCE (PORTUGUESE SWEET BREAD)

*I know I love Portuguese bread.
I found this recipe on a site called the Medeiros Web. Try it and let me know what you think.*

Ingredients

2 packages of active dry yeast
1/2 cup warm potato water
3 tablespoons sugar
1 cup mashed potatoes
1/8 teaspoon ginger
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons salt
6 eggs
1 3/4 cups sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine,
melted
8 to 10 cups flour

Procedure

Dissolve yeast in potato water. Stir in the 3 tablespoons sugar, potatoes and ginger. Cover; let rise until doubled. Scald milk; add salt and cool to lukewarm. In small bowl of electric mixer, beat eggs; gradually beat in the 1 3/4 cups sugar. Stir into yeast mixture. Add butter and mix well. Stir in 2 cups of the flour, then milk. Add 2 more cups of the flour; beat 5 minutes.

Stir in enough remaining flour to make a stiff dough. Place on lightly floured board and knead into remaining flour until dough is smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning in grease top. Cover; let rise until doubled.

Grease four 9 X 5 X 3-inch loaf pans. On a lightly floured board, divide dough into fourths. Shape each fourth into a loaf; place in prepared pans. Cover; let rise until doubled. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. Bake for 45 minutes or until done.

Makes 4 loaves.

*Come to the Portuguese
Breakfast on February 27th and compare to the bread we serve!
